Notes on Completion of Nomination Form for a Functional Constituency (Election of a Member of the Legislative Council)

1. A separate nomination form must be used for each candidate.
2. A nomination form should be personally subscribed by at least 10 electors for the functional constituencies, each of whom must sign in the space provided. All the subscribers must be registered electors for the functional constituency concerned. A candidate is advised to include slightly more than the minimum required number of subscribers in his nomination form to avoid the risk of invalidation of the nomination due to disqualification of subscribers. In the column of registered residential address, subscribers must provide their registered residential addresses as recorded in the Final Register. If they have moved out, they still need to provide their residential addresses as recorded in the Final Register.
3. An elector of a functional constituency is entitled to subscribe any number of nomination forms up to the number of Members to be returned by that functional constituency to the Legislative Council. Out of the 28 functional constituencies, only the Labour functional constituency is to return three Members to the Legislative Council, and each of the remaining 27 functional constituencies is to return one Member. Thus, an elector of the Labour functional constituency is entitled to subscribe up to three nomination forms whereas an elector of any other functional constituency is entitled to subscribe only one. In the case of a corporate elector, the subscription of the nomination form by that elector may be effected by that elector's authorized representative or a responsible person.
4. For publication in the Government Gazette, please provide the name and principal residential address of the candidate in both Chinese and English. The candidate must provide the name as shown on his identity document (being the identity document based on which the particulars of the candidate are recorded in the Final Register). If the Returning Officer is satisfied that the candidate is usually known by a name different from that shown on his identity document, he may include that different name as his alias.
5. If a candidate so wishes, he can state on the nomination form his political affiliation which may be published in candidates' introductory leaflets.
6. During the 3 years preceding the nomination, if there were occasions on which the candidate was absent from Hong Kong for more than 90 days (accumulatively) in duration, he has to state clearly the duration, place of residence during absence and reason for absence in the nomination form.
7. A nomination form should be handed in by the candidate in person (except where the Chief Electoral Officer, on application, allows another means of delivery) and received by the Returning Officer within the nomination period from 20 July 2000 to 2 August 2000 during office hours (Monday to Friday: from 9 am to 5 pm; Saturday, from 9:00 am to 12 noon) on any day other than a general holiday. The nomination form should be accompanied by:-
 - (a) an election deposit in the sum of HK$25,000 in cash; or by crossed cheque/cashier order made payable to the Government of the Hong Kong Special Administrative Region (in order to avoid the risk of invalidation of the nomination due to dishonoured cheque, candidates are strongly advised to submit the election deposit in cash or cashier order if they submit the nomination form on or after 31 July 2000); and
 - (b) a promissory oath to the effect as required in Section 40(1)(b)(iii) of the Legislative Council Ordinance (has already been attached to the nomination form).
(The promissory oath has to be made before a Commissioner for Oaths, a Notary Public, a Justice of the Peace, a solicitor holding a practising certificate or an authorized person to take and receive such oath.)

A candidate should note that the nomination form must contain the promissory oath for the purpose of nomination.

8. A prospective candidate is strongly advised to submit his nomination form as early as practicable so that any mistakes found in his nomination form may be rectified before the close of nominations.

9. The Returning Officer may not accept any nomination form on which the name or other important particulars of the candidate has/have been amended, altered or corrected.
10. Generally, unless and until the Returning Officer decides that a nomination form is invalid, the candidate is deemed to stand nominated and he may hence carry out activities to promote his election. The Returning Officer's decision on the eligibility of the candidate and the validity of a nomination is final and cannot be questioned in any proceeding except by an election petition.
11. A nomination will not be valid unless it contains the information as required in the Legislative Council Ordinance and the Electoral Affairs Commission (Electoral Procedure) (Legislative Council) Regulation. The Returning Officer concerned may request such other information from a candidate as he considers necessary to satisfy himself as to the validity of the nomination.
12. A candidate cannot be nominated for more than one constituency/Election Committee in the 2000 Legislative Council elections. When he hands in his nomination form, he must have withdrawn his candidature in respect of all other constituencies or the Election Committee, if any, or else his new nomination will be held to be invalid.
13. If a candidate wishes to withdraw his candidature, he may do so by completing and delivering to the Returning Officer concerned a Notice of Withdrawal of Candidature in a specified form not later than the expiry of the nomination period.
14. Part II of this form should be completed and signed by a candidate in the presence of a witness who can be any person who is in possession of a Hong Kong Identity Card and aged 18 years or over. The witness is required to complete Part III of this form and sign thereunder.
15. For enquiries, please contact the Returning Officer concerned or call the Election Hotline of the Registration and Electoral Office at 2891 1001.
16. Qualifications and disqualifications for nomination as a candidate or election as a Member are dealt with in sections 37(2)&(3), 39, 40 and 41 of the Legislative Council Ordinance which are reproduced below for reference:-
